

The following poems about Fathers can be used anytime you wish to show appreciation.

The first one is done in black and white, the second in color.

*God bless you.
I hope you enjoy them.
Aunt B*

*I'm so thankful you are my Dad
You always make me smile.*

*When things get tough you're always there,
To help me go that extra mile.*

*You teach me things I need to know
You fix things when they break.
I'll never forget the importance of
A roll of gray duck tape.*

*All the good things that go into,
Making a perfect dad.
They're all rolled up inside of you
And it makes me really glad
To have been blessed, so very blessed
To be cared for and feel so secure
You've always been there, always will be
Of this I can be sure.*

Thank you, Daddy

*Poem by: Aunt B
school4free.blogspot.com*

*I'm so thankful you are my Dad
You always make me smile.
When things get tough you're always there,
To help me go that extra mile.*

*You teach me things I need to know
You fix things when they break.
I'll never forget the importance of
A roll of gray duck tape.*

*All the good things that go into,
Making a perfect dad.
They're all rolled up inside of you
And it makes me really glad
To have been blessed, so very blessed
To be cared for and feel so secure
You've always been there, always will be
Of this I can be sure.*

Thank you, Daddy

*Poem by: Aunt B
school4free.blogspot.com*