An Aunt's Book

"Autumn Leaves"

school4free.blogspot.com

An Aunt B Book

Autumn leaves are falling down,
Making rainbows on the ground,
Red and yellow, orange and brown
Autumn leaves are falling down.

Autumn leaves are in the air,
Falling here and falling there,
You can see them everywhere
Autumn leaves are in the air.

Autmn leaves are piled up high,
Rake up a pile to reach the sky,
Jump right in, give it a try!
Autmn leaves are piled up high.

Autmn leaves still linger near,
So enjoy the fun, while Fall is here,
I wish Autumn could last all year, Autmn leaves still linger near,

Autmn leaves will soon be gone,
When every goose
to the South has flown, Fall doesn't seem to last that long.
Autmn leaves will soon be gone,

Autmn leaves are gone it seems,
But they're just asleep
until the spring,
Then God touches the earth,
and makes things turn green.
Autmn leaves are gone it seems,
