

My Autumn Book

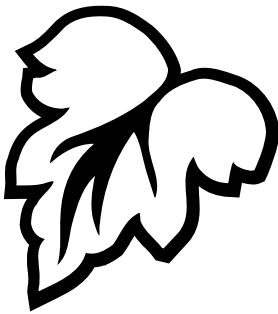

Name: _____

Aunt B Book

The weather is cooler.
Summertime is gone.
Apples are getting ripe,
Put your jackets on.

Leaves changing colors,
orange, red, and brown.
When the wind blows,
one by one, they fall down.

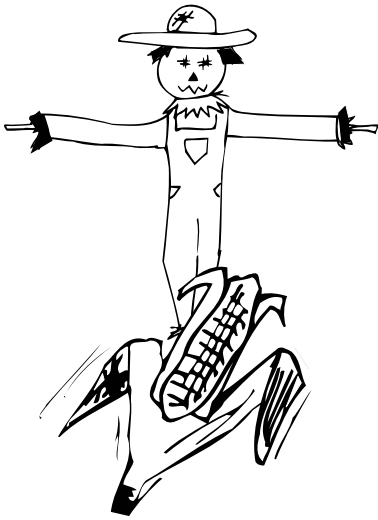

Pumpkins ripen on the vine.
I can't wait till picking time.
I'll pick the biggest one I see.
Make pumpkin pie and eat the seeds.

I have a scarecrow down on the farm.

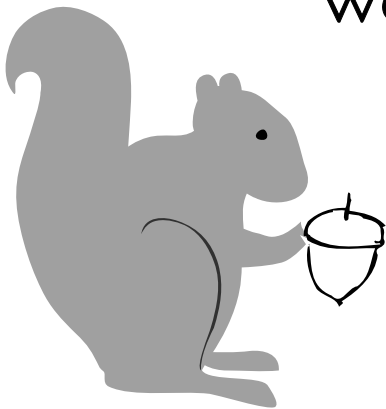

Who sleeps through the winter
safe in our barn.

Page 4

Squirrels gather nuts and the Geese fly away, to find a much warmer place they can stay.

Page 5

A big harvest moon lights up the sky,
So the wise owl can see how to fly.

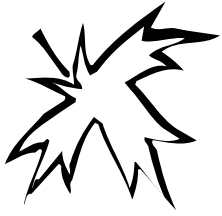

Page 6

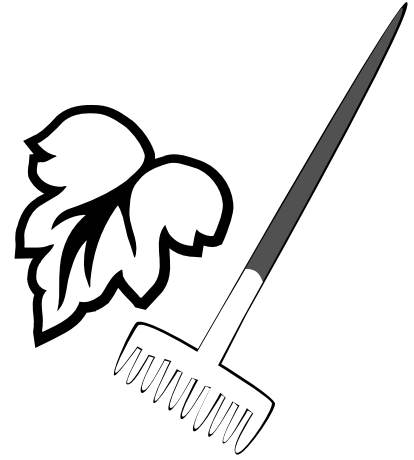

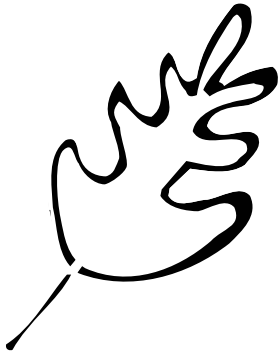

There's so much to do.
We'll have so much fun.
Autumn, I'm really glad you've begun!

Page 7

My Autumn Book

Illustrated By: _____

Aunt B Book

The weather is cooler.
Summertime is gone.
Apples are getting ripe,
Put your jackets on.

Leaves changing colors,
orange, red, and brown.
When the wind blows,
one by one, they fall down.

Draw a picture leaves.

Page 2

Pumpkins ripen on the vine.
I can't wait till picking time.
I'll pick the biggest one I see.
Make pumpkin pie and eat the seeds.

Draw a picture of a pumpkin.

Page 3

I have a scarecrow down on the farm.
Who sleeps through the winter
safe in our barn.

Draw a picture of a scarecrow.

Page 4

Squirrels gather nuts and the Geese fly away, to find a warmer place to stay.

Draw a picture of a squirrel.

Page 5

A big harvest moon lights up the sky,
So the wise owl can see how to fly.

Draw a picture of an owl.

Page 6

There's so much to do.
We'll have so much fun.
Autumn, I'm really glad you've begun!

Draw your own fall picture.

Page 7