

Special sound of ay

Circle the letters ay in each word. Read the words out loud.

day Kay may Fay way bay ray away hay today say play pay lay Jay

Let's Rhyme! Circle the rhyming words in each sentence and write them in the blanks.

I can lay in the hay.

I will play with Kay.

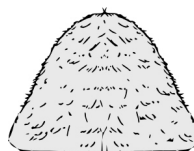

Cows eat hay all day.

Jay will go away today.

Choose the correct answer.

Cows eat _____

(hay or day)

I will _____ my bill.

(may or pay)

I want to play "Mother _____

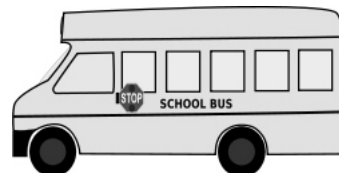

(say or may)

l."

Will we go to school _____

(say or today)

?

Fun Reading with ay

I want to play all day.

You can not go outside today.

What did you say?

She ran all the way to the bay.

Stay away!

Yes, you may show the way.

Will we go to school today?

I will pay for my kite.

This pot is made of clay.

The dog is gray and white.

The ships are in the bay.

Stay away from the bay.

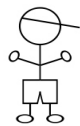

Put your plate on the tray.

Do not stray away.

The cow will eat the hay.

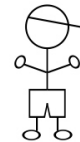

Lay on the rug.

What Funny Names!

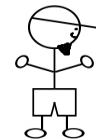

I am Jay Clay.

My brother is Ray Clay.

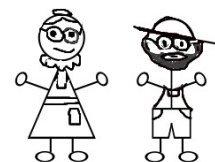

My sister is Kay Clay.

My father is Clay Clay.

My mother is Mae Clay.

My Grandparents are Vay and Fay Clay.

Jay Clay, Ray Clay, Kay Clay, Clay Clay, Mae Clay, Vay and Fay Clay.

Word Shape with ay

say ways hay play spray
gray prays rays stay tray

