*Hurray for Johnny Appleseed!
He makes September bright.*

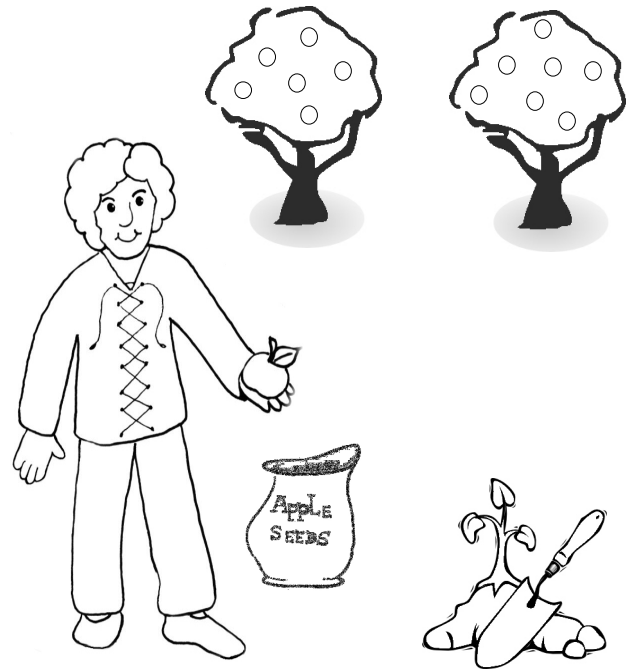

A man who loved the animals ^{3.}
and taught us to do right.

He thought of people moving ^{4.}
West
and planted apple trees.

^{5.}
With a pot on his head, Bible in hand, he left home and followed his dream.

If Johnny were here
I'd thank him today
for all the work he's done;
For planting trees, and living right,
and making,
Autumn so much fun.
